

Falcon class

5/11/20

This week Falcon class have been delving into our new class text 'Street Child,' which is one of Miss Hurdhan's favourite books to teach from. After reading the first chapter, some of the reactions from the children were wonderful to see. In English, we wrote a diary entry based on how excited Jim felt to have a shilling to go and buy a pie for his family.

Even though we have been working very hard in all our core subjects, we also make sure that we have time each day for a mindfulness activity to support a balance for our wellbeing.
