

Planting

Have you planted your sunflower seed this week? I can't wait to see how tall they grow. I wonder who will have the tallest sunflower.

Home Learning

23.3.20-27.3.20

PE

Have you been enjoying PE at home? You can follow Joe Wicks on YouTube or even cosmic yoga!

Cooking

Have you tried the biscuit recipe? They look super yummy and you can share them with your families.

Writing

I love seeing all your fantastic writing using your yellow books.

Painting

Have you painted or drawn a rainbow to put in your window? When people walk past it will make them smile.

Junk Modelling

I wonder what you can create. Junk modelling is great fun!

I have been having help at home from Biggles and Bailey finding fun Easter activities for you all to enjoy!
