

Fox Class

25th June 2021

We've had a great time this week investigating volume and capacity. We used different containers to solve problems with water, and enjoyed experiencing some sensory fun with the glittery waterbeads! We learned the difference between capacity and volume, and are able to measure in ml and l.

