

Our Class trip to Painshill Park

We made small dens. To test if they were waterproof we put our hands inside and had a bucket of water poured over them.

We then got to make a larger den. We all had to go inside for it to be tested. This time the bucket of water was poured over our whole bodies.

We had a great day!

